

Increase application productivity with softstarters

Reduce the number of stops in your production by allowing your softstarter to do more than just starting.

Our softstarters reduce the mechanical stress on your motor application, which will increase your uptime.

Torque control, pump cleaning, motor brake and many other features enable you to operate your process at its full potential.

