ABB tacteo® KNX

The individual touch

Your guests come to you because you're different. You recognise them as individuals and are committed to offering them a bespoke experience. You help them feel valued, feel comfortable, and you give them a reason to return. Unique in design and function, ABB tacteo® KNX sensors reflect the individuality of both you and your guests. They enable you to express your unique style and show your guests they're staying somewhere that appreciates them for who they are.
